The Germans were there en masse, and talked loudly about resisting forcibly Hunter's assuming the command, as the enemy were entrenching themselves on Wilson's Creek, and nothing was heard of Hunter; and, in accordance with the most earnest entreaties, Fremont promised, just at dark, that he would lead the army to attack them this morning, if Hunter did not arrive. I never saw anything approaching the excitement which this announcement created. It caused immense cheering around the headquarters, which spread in all directions from camp to camp, and there was almost uninterrupted cheering, growing more and more remote as the news reached the camps farther and farther from the army, for two hours and a half. A dozen bands were serenading the General; at once everybody was preparing to start at daylight and the all pervading disappointment was

Hear what the Philadelphia correspondent says in the Commonwealth," Wilmington, Delaware, 9th of April "An English gentleman, formerly connected with the British Army, and who styles himself the 'Indian Botanic Physician', has of late gained an extensive reputation here by his skill in curing all manner of complaints. Some of his patients I have conversed with, and they pronounce his remedies and mode of treatment as very superior. Some have been reasoned as It by magic. The medicine he uses is distilled by himself from various herbs possessing rare carative properties. "While acting in the army he devoted his leisure moments to a thorough study of the effects produced by certain medicinal roots and hetbs on all manner of disease. It seems he has found a sure and speedy remedy for all the 'lils that fisch is helr to.' His practice is already extensive and is daily increasing.
